

Letter to Tuskegee University Community
March 6, 2018

A, parents and friends. There is no challenge great or small commitment of the Tuskegee community to educate future leaders and to advance age. Together we will work to ensure that Tuskegee University remains and harnesses opportunities well within our reach and even beyond. We will focus and the highest level of respect.

honor and privilege, among others, to receive and administer invested funds, determine policies for the operation and control of the university. Currently, comprised of 22 individuals who span across multiple professional disciplines boards. We are delighted and pleased with the progress we have made together must now continue and capitalize on this positive progress for the benefit

Our President has been exemplary. Her leadership along with Provost Sara to secure the best student outcomes that the university has experienced. based on enrolling, retaining, and graduating students that will add to the challenge is one that is well documented and has been shared and made available and indeed globally. We as Trustees embrace and uphold and commit to this "the whole student, the head, the heart, and the hand." We all have a role in supporting our faculty and our alumni who will support our educational endeavors with assurance.

Our most recent challenges and are now focused on creating an institution culture. We are also keenly aware of our financial stewardship. One area we are committed to is endowed student scholarships, which will be a focus of the board and senior leaders. Our students have every avenue of non-loan financial support. Here are some of the things that we have been able to accomplish through diligent and competent
